

Mr. and Mrs. Casey John Duncum

Vows exchanged on Oct. 12, 2019

By Messenger Staff | Published on November 09, 2019

Elizabeth Sutton Young, daughter of Cary and Jonna Young, married Casey John Duncum, son of Mark and Angela Duncum, all of Decatur, Oct. 12, 2019, at Southside Church of Christ in Fort Worth.

Mark Duncum, father of the groom, officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted by her father.

Maids of honor were Chandler Young and Hadden Young, the bride's sisters.

Bridesmaids were Claire Cartmel, Faith Davis, Betsy Seabourn, Gayle Thorne and Christina Duncum.

Flowergirl was Reagan Duncum, the groom's niece; and the ringbearer was Sterling Duncum, the groom's nephew.

Best man was Cody Duncum, the groom's brother.

Groomsmen were Chip Moore, Mason Duncum, Brandon Avedikian, Grant Hamilton, Preston Hamilton and Cade Isham.

Ushers were Zack Cartmel, Nathan Hilliard and Andrew Ponton.

A reception was held by the bride's parents at Colonial Country Club of Fort Worth.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Riviera Maya.

They will live in Decatur.

The bride is a 2010 graduate of Decatur High School and graduated from Texas A&M in 2013. She is Operations VP at Youngs Tanks Inc. in Boyd.

The groom is a 2009 graduate of DHS and graduated from Abilene Christian in 2014. He is manager of Trophy Ridge Apartments in Decatur.