Jessica Breanne Williams, daughter of Brent and Roxanne Williams of Decatur, married Chad Franklin LaRoque of Aledo, son of Mary Clark of Weatherford and Bruce and Charlotte LaRoque of Blackwell, Sept. 11, 2020, at the Springs-Parker Manor in Weatherford.

Pastor Patti Mahaffey officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted by her father.

The bride wore an elegant shimmering ivory lace dress over tulle with a jeweled waist. The illusion V-neckline and scoop back with cap sleeves was adorned with sequins and crystal buttons. The bride also chose a cathedral-length veil edged with lace. She carried a romantic destructed bouquet in beautiful jewel tones of maroon, peach, lavender and white flowers, round in design with soft delicate wisps of accent color nestled in soft tones of greenery.

Maid of honor was Natalie Johnson. Bridesmaids were Nicole Clifton, Andria Williams, Lindsey Girard and Jessica Sanders. The bride's attendants wore floor-length elegant black satin dresses with off the shoulder and an A-line silhouette. They carried nosegays similar to the bridal bouquet.

Flowergirls were Evan Clifton, daughter of Trey and Nicole Clifton, Delainey and Dally Williams, daughters of Brennan and Andria Williams and Reese Girard, daughter of Paul and Lindsey Girard.

Jennifer Kirby presented a scripture reading during the Lighting of the Unity Candle.

Best man was Bruce LaRoque. Groomsmen were Brian Holloway, Brennan Williams, Paul Girard and Cooper Holland.

A reception was held at the Parker Manor by the bride's parents. Servers included Lynette Babcock, Amber Gallimore, Wendy Moreland and Brenda Tunnell.

The couple will reside in Aledo.

The bride graduated from Decatur High School and Midwestern State University. She is a kindergarten teacher at Aledo ISD. The groom graduated from Odessa High School and North Texas University. He is a development and grants manager for the City of Fort Worth.
