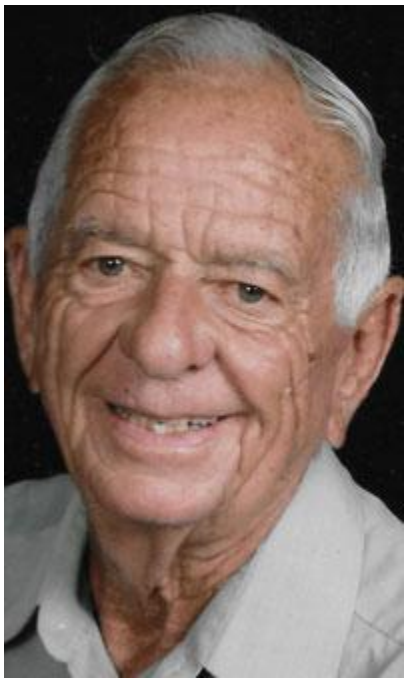
Ned E. Adcock | 1933-2015

Published Saturday, October 17, 2015
Tags: Aurora



Ned E. Adcock

Ned E. Adcock, 82, of Aurora died Wednesday, Oct. 14, 2015, in Aurora.

Funeral is 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 17, at Aurora Baptist Church with the Rev. Jimmy Withers officiating. Burial is at Aurora Cemetery.

Pallbearers are Brent Stone, Donny Worthington, Kyle Copp, Steve Soloman, Gary Lambert and Kevin Howard. Honorary pallbearers are Tony Dickey, Robert Pitts, Joe Smith, Jack Smith and Bo Jennings.

Ned was born Jan. 10, 1933, in Monroe, Ga., to Claude and Stella (Whitley) Adcock. He married June Jennings Sept. 13, 1957, in Wichita Falls. Ned served his country in the U.S. Air Force. He retired from Bell Helicopter as an assembler.

Ned was preceded in death by his parents; brothers Ralph, Roy, Lamar, Mell and James Adcock; and his sisters, Sarah Heggwood and Sue Drucker. He is survived by his wife of 58 years, June Jennings Adcock of Aurora; son Brad Adcock and wife, Tammy, of Newark; daughter Robin Adcock of Saginaw; grandchildren Jasmyn Simpson, Hannah Adcock and Halyn Adcock; great-grandchild Alexa Simpson-Thomas; and other family members and friends.