

DEBORAH ANN WEBER SCROGGINS

Deborah Ann Scroggins, 54, died Sunday, June 17, 2007 in Albuquerque, New Mexico of breast cancer.

Mrs. Scroggins was born in Los Alamos, NM on her Mother's birthday December 8, 1952, to Joe and Jane Weber. She attended schools in Los Alamos and was a graduate of New Mexico State University. She was married to Rick Scroggins on August 23, 1974 in Ruidoso, NM. They lived in Las Cruces, NM, Bedford, and Albuquerque, NM. Their three sons were home schooled and the family was active in Boy Scouts. She directed her compassion and concern for others into the people and community around her and lived her life with a gentle grace.

She is survived by her husband, Rick; sons, Colin, Ian and Ethan, all of Albuquerque, NM; her parents, Joe and Jane Weber; brothers, Bernie and Jerry and his wife, Pam, all of Los Alamos, NM; her Mother-in-law, Beryl Scroggins, Bridgeport; her brothers-in-law and wives, Randy and Jackie Scroggins, Westlake and Mike and Marsha Scroggins, Ft. Worth, many nieces and nephews and their families, and a large extended family and many friends.

A memorial service was held in Los Alamos, NM on Friday, June 22.

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, July 5, 2007