

Rawle, Thomas Marshall | 1920-2011

Published Sunday, August 21, 2011

Funeral for Thomas Marshall Rawle, 91, of Chico was Aug. 14 at Cornerstone Baptist Church. Larry Cornell and the Rev. Ray Cobb officiated. Burial followed at Preskitt Cemetery.

Rawle died Thursday, Aug. 11, 2011, in Decatur.

Born June 30, 1920, in Wise County to John Thomas and Clyde (Wallace) Rawle, he married Neoma Marie Little Nov. 15, 1939, in Bridgeport. He was a farmer and a member of Cornerstone Baptist Church.

Rawle was preceded in death by his sister, Hazel Cobb, and brother, W.D. Rawle.

He is survived by his wife; son Nolan Rawle of Chico; daughter Kay Milligan and husband, Leslie, of Azle; granddaughters Suzanne Stewart and husband, Woody, of Azle, Sonya McClanahan and husband, Mark, of Haslet and Lisa Little of Chico; and great-grandchildren Aaron Stewart, Chris Moore, Breanna and Hunter McClanahan and Ashley and Trey Little.

Pallbearers were Mark McClanahan, Christopher Moore, Aaron Stewart, Trey Little, D.J. Lusty, Tom Rawle and Justin Romine.