

Richard, Deral | 1952-2011

Published Sunday, September 4, 2011

Funeral for Deral Richard, 59, of Runaway Bay was to be 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 3, at Jones Family Funeral Home in Bridgeport.

Richard died Wednesday, Aug. 31, 2011, in Decatur.

Born Aug. 22, 1952, in Odessa to Charles Anthony and Rena (Johnson) Richard, he was a supervisor for Aspen Oil and a member of St. John's Catholic Church in Bridgeport. Richard hunted, fished, rode motorcycles, boated, read and was a Dallas Cowboys fan. He is survived by his wife, Pam; daughters Laura Richard-Molloy and husband, Richard, of Charleston, S.C., and Tracie Richard-Russenberger and husband, Brent, of Richardson; his parents; stepdaughters Jennifer Hill and husband, Chris, of Aubrey, Christina Jasso of Decatur and Melody Jasso of Bowie; and stepsons Jerry Jasso of Denton and Michael Jasso of Saginaw.

He is also survived by brothers Craig Richard of Marrero, La., and Charles Richard Jr. of Greensboro, N.C.; sister Charlotte Richard of Marrero; in-laws William and Juanita Greene; grandchildren Ryan, Jacob, Blanchez, Jocelyn and Logan; and aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Memorials may be made in Richard's memory to Solaris Hospice in Decatur.