

Reynolds, Viola G. | 1913-2012

Published Wednesday, February 15, 2012

Viola G. Reynolds

Funeral for Viola G. Reynolds, 98, of Bridgeport was Feb. 14 at Hawkins Funeral Home in Bridgeport with Scott Strother officiating. Burial followed at Willow Point Cemetery.

Reynolds died Friday, Feb. 10, 2012, in Decatur.

Born Feb. 20, 1913, in McAlester, Okla., to James and Louisa (Nichols) Brown, she married John Edward Reynolds. She was a homemaker and a member of the Cates Street Church of Christ in Bridgeport.

Reynolds was preceded in death by her husband on Oct. 8, 1974; daughter Inez “Suey” Neill; sisters Vivian Reynolds and Eula Westcott; and brothers Luther Brown and Issac Brown.

She is survived by daughters Dean Holley and husband, Frank, of Gordonville, Donna Reynolds of Bridgeport, Ladye Irene Cammack and husband, Cecil, of Cleburne, and Juanita Rogers and husband, Johnny, of Agnes; sons Bossie Reynolds and wife, Annie, of Fort Worth, and Charlie Reynolds and wife, Elaine, of Azle; 19 grandchildren; 35 great-grandchildren; 16 great-great-grandchildren; and sister Rublee Cummins of Cheyenne, Wyo.

Pallbearers were Joe Neill, Ronald Neill, Jimmy Neill, Mark Neill, Will Cammack, Kevin Rogers, John Rogers, Josh Reynolds and Charles Reynolds.