Tiger Ray Rohus

Tiger Ray Rohus, 19, died Thursday, March 14, 2013, at a Houston hospital. He had cystic fibrosis.

Funeral is 2:30 p.m. Thursday, March 21, at Lake Country Church, 8777 Boat Club Rd., in Fort Worth, with burial at Oaklawn Cemetery in Decatur. Visitation is 1 to 2:30 p.m. Thursday at the church prior to the service.

Memorials may be made to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation of Northeast Texas, 3840 Hulen St., #600, Fort Worth, TX 76107.

Tiger was born July 16, 1993, in Fort Worth to Linda Gage Rohus and Rickey Rohus. He attended Lake Country Christian School, graduating in 2011.

Tiger enjoyed numerous hobbies such as paintball, wakeboarding, snowboarding, dirt bikes and sports and loved all his cars. He had battled cystic fibrosis since the day he was born, but he was an amazing person who “lived life to the max” and never complained.

He had many friends who surrounded his life and saw him as a brother and an inspiration, but his best friend was his father, Rickey Rohus. He took care of Tiger and was always by his side. They had an unbreakable bond of love and friendship.

Tiger was preceded in death by his mother, Linda Gage Rohus.

He is survived by his father; stepmother April Rodriguez; fianc e Sarah Morgan; sisters Madison Sage and Brandi Norris; godparents Leon and Brenda Wilkerson; numerous uncles, aunts and cousins, including Paul and Pam Rohus, Marsha Gage and Paul Rodden, Stevie Gage and Terrie Johnson.
