

Strange, Bradley 'Jeff' | 1963-2013

Published in the 'Wise County Messenger' Saturday, April 27, 2013

Bradley 'Jeff' Strange

Bradley "Jeff" Strange, 49, a lead manufacturing specialist, died Thursday, April 25, 2013, at his home in Boyd.

Funeral is 2 p.m. Saturday, April 27, at Christian-Hawkins Funeral Home in Boyd with burial in New Hope Cemetery.

The Rev. Kevin Wells will officiate, and Blake Strange, Rick Flurry, Roy Gordon Jr., Scotty Walker, Chuck Renner and Kevin McCurry will serve as pallbearers.

Jeff was born Aug. 20, 1963, in Fort Worth to Brian and Barbara (Plies) Strange. He married Glenna Norwood Dec. 31, 1994, in Boyd. Jeff worked for Texas Instruments. He loved to hunt and when he wasn't hunting, he was fishing.

He is survived by his wife, Glenna Strange of Boyd; daughters Ashley Strange of Hurst and Stacey Ogle of Rhome; grandsons Jordan Walker and Briley Ogle; his mother, Barbara Anderson of Fort Worth; his father, Brian Strange and wife, Linda, of Fort Worth; twin brother Blake Strange and wife, Laura, of Fort Worth; brother Gene Strange and wife, Michelle, of Fort Worth; stepbrother Mike Anderson and wife, Beth, of Midlothian; his favorite dogs, Sissy and Lady; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of friends.