

Louise Farrell Stone | 1922-2014

Published Wednesday, March 19, 2014

Louise Farrell Stone

Louise Farrell Stone, 92, a housewife, died Monday, March 10, 2014, in Decatur.

Mass of Christian burial was March 18 at the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church in Decatur with Father Thomas Bsouza officiating. Burial followed at Oaklawn Cemetery. Pallbearers were Tommy Williams, Harold Mosley, Ed Jolly, Curtis Eaton, Chuck Boatner and Ed Malek.

Louise was born Jan. 30, 1922, in Boston to William and Margaret (O'Sullivan) Farrell. She married Billy Stone May 1, 1943, in Washington, D.C. Louise was a member of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church. She volunteered for more than 30 years with the Decatur Hospital Auxiliary and the Decatur Library.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband, Billy. Survivors include her son, Bill Stone and wife, Karen, of Austin; daughters Kathy Stone and husband, Nat Weems, of Austin and Janet Garbarz and husband, Dan, of Grapevine; grandchildren Zeke, Ben, Hannah, Mallory and Maddie; special friend, Alex, for all her care for Louise; and numerous nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Memorials can be made to the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church, 1305 Deer Park Rd., Decatur, TX 76234 or the Decatur Library, 1700 South FM 51, Decatur, TX 76234.