

ALVIN KENNETH BRAMMER

1921-2015

RHOME: Alvin Kenneth Brammer, 93, a retired mechanic, died Wednesday, February 4, 2015 in Decatur.

Kenneth was born on July 16, 1921 to Walter and Alice (Nesmith) Brammer in Rhome, Texas, where he has resided most of his life on the home place. He retired from Lockheed (formerly General Dynamics) after 35 years of service. Kenneth was a member of First Baptist Church of Rhome.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Melba Thomas Brammer; his sister, Ruth Harlen Frye; and his dear friend, Betty Specht.

Survivors include his brother, Billy Ray Brammer of Benbrook; his sister, Gloria Ann Dustman of Santa Fe; his loving nieces and nephews and caring friend and neighbor, Ronnie Moore of Rhome.

Graveside service was held at 2:00 p.m. Friday, February 6, 2015 at Aurora Cemetery.

Rev. Gerre Joiner will officiate.

Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home

405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.