Charles Dennis “Denny” Keith

Charles Dennis “Denny” Keith, 64, of Bowie died Saturday, Jan. 3, 2015, in Decatur.

Memorial service is 3 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 8, at Southside Baptist Church in Bowie. The family has selected cremation.

Visitation is 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 7, at the White Family Funeral Home in Bowie.

Denny was born May 21, 1950, in Pampa to Billy and Margie Keith. He graduated from Lefors High School in 1968 and attended West Texas State University (now West Texas A&M) in Canyon.

Denny worked for Cities Service Gas Co., which became Targa Resources, from 1970 until his death. He could almost always be found at various lakes fishing with friends, hunting with family at his deer lease or visiting with guests who always received a warm smile and great conversation.

Denny was preceded in death by his father, Billy Keith.

He is survived by his mother, Margie Keith, of Bowie; brother Dwight Keith and wife, Karen, of North Richland Hills; and sister Denise Imke and husband, Charles, of Alto, N.M.

He is also survived by his son, Mitch Keith, and wife, Candace, of Coppell; daughter Allyson Terry, and husband, Jason, of Bellevue; grandchildren Dayton, Eli, Avery, Bailey and Broc; and one niece and one nephew.
