

Robert Lee Rann | 1959-2015

Published Wednesday, March 25, 2015

Tags: Saginaw

Robert "Bobby" Lee Rann

Robert "Bobby" Lee Rann, 56, of Saginaw died Thursday, March 19, 2015, in Dallas.

He lost his battle to cancer and related complications following a stem cell transplant.

Funeral was March 23 at Saginaw United Methodist Church, and burial was at Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Bobby was born Jan. 26, 1959, in Decatur, and he graduated from Decatur High School in 1977. He worked in Electra for a while where he met his wife, Sheri Shirley Rann, and they were married April 18, 1987.

Bobby was retired as general manager of Love's Truck Stops and was currently a self-employed property manager.

He was active in the Saginaw United Methodist Church where he served as an usher and on various committees. Bobby held a huge interest in his family, NASCAR racing and sports.

He was the youngest of four children born to the late Charlie and Sadie Lee Rann of Decatur.

He is survived by his wife, Sheri Shirley Rann; daughters Shelbi Rann and fianc , Kevin Hancock, and Amanda Rann Milligan and husband, John; and siblings Chuck Rann and wife, Linda, of Milwaukee, Wis., Davis Rann of Chicago and Martha Rann of Hickory Creek.

Memorials may be made to Saginaw United Methodist Church-Capital Improvements Fund or Baylor Health Care System Foundation designated to Cancer Research at give.baylorhealth.com.