

Moveline Niblett Riley | 1929-2015

Published Wednesday, January 14, 2015

Tags: Bridgeport

Moveline Niblett Riley

Moveline Niblett Riley, 85, died Monday, Jan. 12, 2015, in Bridgeport.

Funeral is 11 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 14, at the First Baptist Church in Boyd with burial at Keeter Cemetery. The Rev. Mark Autry will officiate with the Revs. Brandon Autry and Willie Haak assisting.

Pallbearers are Dwayne Boswell, Brad Carter, Matthew Jackson, Riley Carter, Kade Erwin and Gavin Erwin. Honorary pallbearer is Major Jason Boswell.

Moveline was born July 10, 1929, in Mineral Wells to William and Ruby (Phillips) Niblett. She married Jack Riley April 29, 1948, in Fort Worth. She was a homemaker.

Jack preceded her in death Dec. 24, 2013.

Moveline loved to garden and can and was known to make the best sweet pickles and plum jelly in the world. She was an avid seamstress and quilter and enjoyed teaching others about sewing and quilting.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband, Jack Riley.

She is survived by her son, Mike Riley and wife, Donna, of Sanger; daughters Connie Boswell and husband, Walt, of Peyton, Colo., Gay Jackson of Hurst and Julie Autry and husband, Mark, of Boyd; brother Alvin Niblett and wife, Patricia, of Boyd; sister Shannon Martin of Azle; 12 grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; and nieces, nephews and friends.