

Oscar D. Romine | 1937-2015

Published Wednesday, October 28, 2015

Tags: Rhome

Oscar D. Romine

Oscar D. Romine, 78, of Rhome, died Friday, Oct. 23, 2015, in Decatur.

Funeral was Oct. 27 at Rhome Assembly of God with the Rev. Michael Alloggio officiating, assisted by the Rev. Michael Stephenson. Burial followed at Aurora Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Bobby Scantlin, Ed Romine, Jon Romine, Kyle Copeland, Zane Holland, Barry Brown, Dustin Byers, Johnathan Davis and Trey Romine.

Oscar was born Jan. 7, 1937, in Elmore City, Okla., to Hugh and Edith (Pursley) Romine. He married Billie Arrington June 8, 1957, in Rhome. Oscar graduated from Northwest High School. He worked as a welder at Modern Welding in Rhome until his retirement.

Oscar was preceded in death by his parents; his son, F. Scott Romine; and brothers Aubrey, Jimmy, David and Larry Romine.

He is survived by his wife of 58 years, Billie Romine of Rhome; daughter Tamme Byers and husband, Kenny, of Aurora; sons Wesley Romine and wife, Sharon, of Aurora, Mark Romine and wife, Staci, of Boyd and Michael Romine and wife, Dee, of Rhome; 12 grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

He's also survived by his brothers, Bill Romine and wife, Nancy, of Oklahoma City and Charles Romine and wife, Tressa, of Rhome; sisters Grace Neal and husband, Dave, of Mount Vernon, Helen Wells of Rhome and Joyce Cardwell of Saginaw; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.