

Frances ‘Rene’ Seals | 1921-2015

Published Saturday, April 11, 2015

Tags: Runaway Bay

Frances “Rene” Seals

Frances “Rene” Seals, 93, of Runaway Bay died Wednesday, April 8, 2015, in Bridgeport. Funeral is 1 p.m. Saturday, April 11, at Hawkins Funeral Home in Bridgeport with the Rev. Jerry Calloway officiating.

Rene was born Sept. 28, 1921, in Comanche to John and Lucille (McDaniel) Kirkland. She married Gordon Seals June 2, 1945, in Comanche and was a member of the Runaway Bay Community Church. She was a homemaker.

Rene was preceded in death by her parents; her husband of 59 years, Gordon Seals; daughter Judy Taylor; grandson James Seals; brothers Austin Kirkland, Troy Kirkland and Delbert Kirkland; and sisters Marie Morgan and Jewell Kirkland. She is survived by her son, Jim Seals and wife, Vicki, of Chico; grandchildren Jason Seals and wife, April, Lisa Podhaisky and husband, Scott, James Seals, Valerie Roberts and husband, Jason, Robert Taylor and Colby Miller and wife, Teramie. She is also survived by great-grandchildren Benjamin Kipp, Abigail Seals, Molly Seals, Marissa Podhaisky, Breane Podhaisky, Tyler Podhaisky, Blaze Miller, Zephan Miller, Kari Miller, Neda Miller, Katlin Davis, Davy Davis and Sierra Taylor; great-great-grandchild Kamarran House; sisters Barbara Holland of Comanche, Melba Tribolette and Faye Brugnoli, both of Richwood, W. Va., and Zelma Loudermilk of Weatherford; and numerous nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.