

Charles C. Skinner | 1940-2015

Published Wednesday, November 4, 2015

Tags: Rhome

Charles C. "Chuck" Skinner

Charles C. "Chuck" Skinner, 75, of Rhome, died Friday, Oct. 23, 2015, in Rhome.

Memorial service is 11:15 a.m. Friday, Nov. 6, at DFW National Cemetery in Dallas with John Redfearn officiating.

Chuck was born July 9, 1940, in Slidell to J.C. and Bess (Johnson) Skinner. He proudly served his country and retired in 1976 from the United States Navy after 20 years of service. He married Virginia Sept. 27, 1974, in Weatherford, and he was a member of Community Church in Decatur, along with his wife.

Chuck was preceded in death by his parents; and brother George Waggoner.

He is survived by his wife of 41 years, Virginia Skinner of Rhome; son Joe Skinner of Fort Worth; daughter Tani Gearin and husband, Kevin, of New Mexico; sisters Eva Collins, Mary Waggoner and Betty Waggoner; brothers Billy and Bobby Waggoner; and numerous nieces, nephews and friends.