Luther C. Stallings, 85, of Burleson died Wednesday, May 20, 2015, in Burleson.

Graveside service is 11 a.m. Wednesday, May 27, at Azleland Cemetery. Jones Family Funeral Home in Bridgeport is handling arrangements.

Luther was born Feb. 1, 1930, in Edgewood and was raised in the Lena Pope Home in Fort Worth. Before his retirement, Luther was a platemaker in the printing industry. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Fort Worth. Having a printing background, he was known to always have plenty of scratch paper around.

Luther was a fan of Texas sports teams, particularly the Dallas Cowboys and Texas Rangers. He also enjoyed gardening. Luther married Helen Stack on Christmas Day 1952 in Fort Worth. The couple were married 62 years before her death earlier this year on Feb. 16, 2015.

Luther is survived by son Paul Stallings; daughters Barbara Nitzinger and Deborah Hudson and husband, James Larry Hudson; and six grandchildren.
