

Alvin Loyd Strange | 1944-2015

Published Wednesday, June 24, 2015

Tags: Decatur

Alvin Loyd Strange

Alvin Loyd Strange, 70, of Decatur died Saturday, June 20, 2015, in Decatur.

Graveside service was June 23 at Sweetwater Cemetery with the Rev. Gary Don Sweatman officiating. Alvin was born Dec. 7, 1944, in Denton to Silas and Gracie (Matheson) Strange. He married Judy Caraway Oct. 7, 2005, in Springtown. Alvin retired from Victor technology after 32 years of service, and he served our country in the U.S. Navy. Alvin enlisted August of 1965, served May of 1967 as a special unit and did tours as a sniper hunter. He was Pentecostal.

Alvin was preceded in death by his parents.

He's survived by his wife of nine years, Judy Strange of Decatur; sister Louise Brumley and husband, Charles, of Krugerville; daughter Sandra Strange of Denton; sons Kenneth Strange and wife, Mayla, of Springtown and Robert Strange of Denton; stepdaughters Stephanie Jackson of Alvord and Amy Fogle of Decatur; 12 grandchildren; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.