

LORITA JEAN TOMLINSON WRIGHT

1932-2015

THE WOODLANDS: Lorita Jean Tomlinson Wright, 82, died on March 24, 2015.

Lorita Jean Tomlinson Wright was born November 27, 1932 in Morganton, Arkansas to Clay and Faye Tomlinson. She graduated from Clinton State Vocational High School in Clinton, Arkansas, then attended Mr. Charles Cosmetology School in Conway, Arkansas. After graduating, she was employed by Mr. Charles at one of his salons in Little Rock, Arkansas as a hair stylist. They were married on October 19, 1951 in Clinton, Arkansas.

Survivors include her husband of 64 years, Henry Leon Wright formerly of Malvern, and daughter, Tonya Brackett (Bart) both of The Woodlands, Texas; sons: Tim Wright of Boynton Beach, Florida and Kent Wright of Spring, Texas; granddaughters: Lezlie Herm (Kyle) of The Woodlands, Texas and Shannon Assif (Adam) of Houston, Texas; grandsons: Clay Wright of Boynton Beach, Florida and Travis Wright of Boynton Beach, Florida; great granddaughter, Sloane Herm (four) and great grandson, Lane Herm (three) of The Woodlands, Texas; sister, Lavelle McKnight (Bud) of Clinton, Arkansas and many other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Funeral Services were held Friday, March 27, 2015 at 3:00 p.m. at the Big Creek Missionary Baptist Church with Brother Mark Thornton officiating. Burial followed in the Big Creek Cemetery. Pallbearers were Clay Wright, Travis Wright, Kyle Herm, Neil McKnight, Casey Jones and Jeff Jones. Honorary pallbearers were Steve McKnight and Monroe Wheat.

Regency Funeral Home

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, April 2, 2015