

Terry Lee Roland | 1963-2016

Published Wednesday, July 6, 2016

Terry Lee Roland

Terry Lee Roland, 52, of Tarrant County, died Saturday, June 18, 2016, in Houston.

Memorial service is 1 p.m. Saturday, July 9, at the First Baptist Church of Quitman, 301 West Lane St., with the Rev. Dewey Davidson officiating.

Terry was born July 7, 1963, in Arlington to Terry and Leona (Dodson) Roland. He graduated from Sam Houston High School in 1980 and worked several professions from truck driving to a variety of fields in the construction industry. Terry enjoyed NASCAR, reading science-fiction novels and had a passion for video games.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Terry is survived by sons Richard Ray Roland of Northern Cambria, Penn., and James Robert Roland of Grand Prairie; daughter Rebecca Roland of Arlington; grandchild Jeremy Jaden Roland of Grand Prairie; sister Kay Wilkerson and husband, David, of Quitman; niece Krisha Campbell and husband, Elzy, of Decatur; nephews Jason Wilkerson and wife, Stephanie, of Durant, Okla., Justin Wilkerson of Greenville and Krystopher and Kalen Wilkerson of Quitman; and numerous grand-nieces and nephews.