Linda L. Roth

Linda L. Roth, 65, of Decatur, died Sunday, April 24, 2016, in her Decatur home.

Memorial is 11 a.m. Saturday, April 30, at Community Church, 2840 U.S. 380, in Decatur with the Revs. John Redfearn and Chris Wann officiating.

Linda was born Nov. 8, 1950, in Meriden, Conn., to Norman and Katherine Priebe. She was a 1968 graduate of Lyman Hall High School in Wallingford, Conn., and attended Boston University, majoring in music education.

Linda was an active member of Community Church of Decatur, where she was involved in playing and singing worship music. She also taught children's music and instructed the children in the use of puppets.

Linda was an accomplished musician, playing piano, flute, violin and guitar. She was a music teacher in her home and other homes around and near Wise County. She enjoyed singing karaoke, acquiring a porcelain village and collecting knick-knacks. She also enjoyed paint-by-number, needlepoint and beading projects.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brother Raymond Kowalczyk; and brother-in-law Donald Saucier.

Linda is survived by her husband of 42 years, Frederic A. Roth of Decatur; sister Patricia Popovich and husband, George, of Westbrook, Conn.; sons Brian P. Roth and wife, Eunmi, of Wichita Falls and Michael D. Roth and wife, Leticia, of Keller.

Other survivors include granddaughter Micaiah Roth of Keller; grandsons Trent Roth of Wichita Falls, Josiah Roth of Keller and Elijah Roth of Keller; sisters-in-law Alice Wiehe and husband, John, and Marcia Saucier; brother-in-law George Roth; nieces Ellen Mooney, Kari Sullivan and Lynn Turner; and nephews Kim Kowalczyk and Michael Wiehe.

Condolences may be sent to the family at 1601 S. College Ave., Decatur, TX 76234.
