

Billy Ray Schooling | 1933-2016

Published Saturday, March 12, 2016

Tags: Alvord

Billy Ray Schooling

Billy Ray Schooling, 82, of Alvord, died Thursday, March 10, 2016, in Alvord.

Graveside is 2 p.m. Saturday, March 12, at Bethel Cemetery, with the Rev. Kevin Moore officiating. Pallbearers are Sean Schooling, Matthew Schooling, William Schooling, Jonathan Fennell, Brandon Deweese, Shaun Thomison, Raymond Farrell, Melvin Farrell, Herchell Schooling, G.A. Buckner, Stephen Alexander and Glenn Gage.

Billy was born Aug. 19, 1933, in Roanoke to Fred and Annie (Underhill) Schooling. He married Margaret Ann McDonald Aug. 17, 1951, in Keller. Billy was in the propane gas business for more than 60 years. He was owner and operator of Schooling, LP Gas for eight years.

Billy was preceded in death by his parents; wife Margaret Schooling; son Gary Schooling; daughter Brenda Fennell; and son Gary Edmond Schooling. He is survived by his daughters, Marsha Roblez of Durant, Okla., Paula Talley of Denison and Julie Schooling of Decatur; brother Lewis Paul Schooling and wife, Patsy, of Roanoke; sister Linda Rubio and husband, Jesse, of Cleburne; son-in-law Carl Fennell of Alvord; 15 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.