Charles Sherman

Charles D. “Deedle” Sherman, 75, of Childress, died Wednesday, Dec. 7, 2016, in Wichita Falls.

Funeral was Dec. 12 in the Joe E. Jones Memorial Chapel at Childress Cemetery with the Rev. Dennis Shoemaker officiating. Burial followed under the direction of Johnson Funeral Home.

Charles was born March 20, 1941, in Decatur to Floyd and Diola Sherman. He worked 41 years for the railroad as a heavy equipment operator.

Charles was a fun-loving man who loved to joke and kid but who was serious about three things: NASCAR, going to the casino and his Kubota. He loved outdoor life and watching wildlife.

Some of his most joyous times the last several years were living the country life with his wife, Barbara, and enjoying nature from their porch. He even had a pet roadrunner, which would often join them in conversation there.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brothers Mearl, Earl, Bud and Ed Sherman; and son Kenny Sherman.

Charles is survived by his wife; sons Trent Sherman, Tracy Sherman, Tim Sherman, Deke Sherman and Bobby Reynolds; daughters Debbie Reynolds and Tammy Reynolds Hawkins; sister Beafey Lewis; and numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.
