

Helen Elizabeth Christine Caldwell Stephens | 1920-2016

Published Saturday, February 6, 2016

Tags: Boyd

Helen Elizabeth Christine Caldwell Stephens

Helen Elizabeth Christine Caldwell Stephens, 95, of Boyd, died Thursday, Feb. 4, 2016.

Graveside service is 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 6, at Frankston City Cemetery in Frankston with Keith Camp officiating.

Christine was born April 22, 1920, in Copeville. She will be remembered for her love of God, her dedication and devotion to her family and an impish grin that let us all know she was ready for mischief. Christine lived history, always ready with a story from her life as she bore witness to the Dust Bowl, the Great Depression and her travels as a war-time bride during World War II.

She was an administrative supervisor of admissions at Parkland Hospital, in Dallas and was working there the day President Kennedy was assassinated. Her vision and insight, on the world both past and present, will be held close to our hearts and deeply missed.

Christine was preceded in death by her mother and father, Maybelle Denton and John Bryant Caldwell; brothers JT Caldwell, George Caldwell, Bill Caldwell and Dick Caldwell; son Eldridge Grant “Dunner” Fincher Jr.; and by Danny Harrison, husband of surviving granddaughter Amy Harrison and father to great-granddaughter Helen Elizabeth “Betsy” Harrison of Galveston.

Christine is survived by her daughter, Cindy Jennings of Boyd; grandson Trey and wife, Sandy Gannon, with their children Cayla Brooke, Abigail Rose, Rebekah Laurel and Rachel Dawn of Bluff Dale; granddaughter Jessica with husband, Andrew Stephens, of Haslet; granddaughters Gay Brand Pollard and Mollie Brand Hatten; her friend and caretaker Donna Bombonati of Boyd; brother Jack Caldwell; sister Dorothy Tate; and many more grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.