

Russell, Louise (Hyles) | 1928-2017

Published Saturday, February 25, 2017

Louise Russell

Louise Hyles Russell, 88, of Boyd, died Monday, Feb. 20, 2017, in Weatherford. Graveside service is 3 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 25, at Boyd Cemetery with the Rev. Sharkey Nelson officiating.

Louise was born Nov. 4, 1928, in Big Spring to Fred and Mattie (Railsback) Hyles. She married Robert Auford Russell Sr. Aug. 9, 1947, in Hico. Louise owned The Mud Dobber ceramic shop and loved selling Avon. She was a resident of Boyd for 53 years.

Louise was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and brothers Ray Hyles and Henry Edward Hyles.

She is survived by her sons, Robert A. Russell Jr. and wife, Judy, of Boyd and Ronnie Ray Russell of Big Sandy; daughter Cindy Clark and husband, David, of Boyd; grandchildren Forrest White of Boyd, Nicole Hollingsworth and husband, Kelly, of Plainview, Hillary Gutierrez and husband, Dominic, of Rock Springs, Wyo., Megan Russell and Rob Vela of Manor, Victoria McCall and husband, Ken, of Weatherford, Robert C. Russell of Midland and Rosline Laake and husband, Greg, of Gilmer.

She is also survived by great-grandchildren Thomas J., Randi A., Kylie Patrice, Olivia, Cooper, Rylee, Samantha, Nolan and Dorothy; brothers Vernon Hyles and Lloyd Dale Hyles and wife, Judy, of Hico; sisters Lorretta Finstad and husband, Buster, of Haltom City and Clara Grace Burnette of Aledo; and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.