Marsha Wyman

Marsha Colleen Wyman, 38, of Fort Worth, died Sunday, Feb. 26, 2017, at Denton Regional Medical Center.

Memorial service is 1 p.m. Saturday, March 4, at The Creek Church, 4901 N. Main Street in Fort Worth.

Marsha was born Jan. 23, 1979, in Tyler. Marsha was a fun and loving wife to Michael Wyman, a Double Oak police officer, and had an unconditional love for her two daughters, Samantha and Katherine Wyman.

Marsha had been a nurse for Wise Health System in Decatur since 2009. She was a natural – with a huge heart – who truly enjoyed helping others. She bonded with both colleagues and patients; treating both with warm friendship and respect. Through the chaos of a busy workday, Marsha always found the time to be an amazing mother and best friend to her two daughters, always guiding and shaping their lives. Marsha was the absolute love of Mike's life, making him the man he is today by supporting him in every single way. She was his soulmate.

Marsha modeled selfless behavior, continually helping family and friends. Her wit, laugh, beautiful smile and bright blue eyes will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

Marsha was preceded in death by father-in-law Craig Wyman; and nephew Jerry Sims. Marsha is survived by her husband; her daughters; father George Graham; mother Dorothy Nix Bass; brothers Paul Sims and wife, Kim, and James Graham and wife, Crystal; sister Sherri Drackley; mother-in-law Kathy Wyman and Robert Magnus; brother-in-law Doug Wyman and wife, Aimee; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

The nurses of Wise Health System, along with the Double Oak police officers, have created a gofundme.com account to help offset the cost of Marsha's medical expenses and funeral arrangements. To donate, go to bit.ly/wymanfam.
