

Town, Danny Ray | 1964-2018

Published Saturday, September 22, 2018

Danny Ray Town

Danny Ray Town, 54, of Bridgeport, died Thursday, Sept. 20, 2018, in Bridgeport. Graveside service is 10 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 25, at East Bridgeport Cemetery with Chaplain Brad Gilbert and Glen Canova officiating.

Visitation is 6 to 8 p.m. Monday, Sept. 24, at Jones Family Funeral Home in Bridgeport. Pallbearers are Brent Bolin, Randy Smith, Bobby Starnes, Bryon Latham, Christopher Hankins and Patrick Salisbury.

Honorary pallbearers are Matt Moore, Tony Selby, Joe Arredondo and Matthew Deering.

Danny was born July 26, 1964, in Cheyenne, Okla., to Donald Eugene and Margaret Ann (Heinsohn) Town. The family moved to Bridgeport in 1970. Danny was a pilot car escort for Trinity Industries for many years.

He was preceded in death by his father; grandparents Perry and Edna Town and Ivan and Martha (Shelton) Heinsohn; and brother Dale Town.

He is survived by his mother; wife Judy Anderson of Bridgeport; sisters Debbie King of Bridgeport and Jolene Skaggs of Amarillo; daughter Lisa Eckeberger and husband, Jordan, of Lewisville; and two grandchildren.