One person was killed in a single-vehicle motorcycle wreck Sunday afternoon near Boonsville.

The wreck happened just before 5 p.m. on County Road 3838, in west Wise County.

Department of Public Safety spokesperson Sgt. Ricky Hunter said preliminary investigation indicates a 2016 Yamaha motorcycle, operated by 20-year-old Dalton Heath George of Paradise, was traveling south on County Road 3838 when the wreck occurred.

“For an as-yet-undetermined reason, the motorcycle veered to the right and left the roadway. The motorcycle struck a tree and came to rest,” Hunter said.

A nurse who was one of the first to arrive on the scene performed CPR until first responders arrived. Wise County EMS, Boonsville/Balsora Fire Department and DPS responded to the wreck scene and shut down CR 3838 for a few hours for the crash investigation.

Precinct 2 Justice of the Peace Kim Redman was called to the scene and pronounced George dead. His body was sent to the Dallas County Medical Examiner.

Memorial service for George is 3 p.m. Thursday at Hawkins Funeral Home in Bridgeport.
