Kerry Dean Sanders, 36, passed away in Decatur on Saturday, Oct. 19, 2019.

Funeral is 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 26 at the Eagle Drive Baptist Church in Decatur. Burial will follow at 3 p.m. in the Albany cemetery in Albany. Arrangements are under the direction of Morrison Funeral Home.

Kerry was born March 23, 1983, in Brownwood to Jerry Sanders and Pamela Hall Sanders. He graduated from Bryson High School and attended TSTC Sweetwater. He was a cherished member of the Eagle Drive Baptist Church family. Kerry was always the life of the party with his witty jokes and outgoing personality. You could not be in the same room as him without laughing. He and his son, Tucker, were constantly in competition of who could tell the best jokes. He adored his children and tried to be as involved as possible in their lives. He coached many little league teams throughout the years as well as just about every other sport that the kids decided to try. Kerry was a big fitness buff and was dubbed the “Mayor of Fit-N-Wise” at his home gym. When he was not at the gym or with his kids, he could be found loving on his canine son, Kreed.

Kerry was preceded in death by his dad, Jerry Dean Sanders, on Jan. 5, 2004.

Kerry is survived by his children, Gracie Thompson and Tucker Sanders, both of Paradise; mother Pam Sanders of Bryson; close friend Jasmine Stark of Paradise; brother JV Sanders and wife, Christine, of Sweeny, twin brother Wayne Sanders and wife, Davin, of East Africa; and nephews Tyler Sanders, Jerry Sanders, Bryson Sanders, Tristan Sanders, Jasper Sanders, Miles Sanders and Soren Sanders.
