

Strand, Henry "Hank"

1937-2019

By Messenger Staff | Published on August 14, 2019

Services for Henry "Hank" Strand, 81, of Runaway Bay, are 11 a.m. Friday, Aug. 16 at Twin Oaks Assembly of God in Bridgeport, officiated by Pastor Jeff Honeycutt. Burial will follow in Bluebonnett Hills Cemetery in Colleyville.

Visitation will also be at the church 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 15.

Hank passed away Monday, Aug. 12, 2019, in Runaway Bay.

Hank was born Sept. 14, 1937, to Henry and Agnes (Holt) Strand in Langford, S.D. He married his wife of 56 years, Eloise Wright Strand, June 14, 1963, in Anaheim, Calif.

His wife said he was a perfect husband full of unconditional love. Hank was a man of honor and a true Christian. He was loved by many children and was considered a surrogate grandfather to many.

He was preceded in death by his son, Brady Kendall Strand; his parents; three brothers; and one sister.

Hank was survived by his wife, Eloise Wright Strand of Runaway Bay; sons Mark Strand and wife, Nikki, of Kennedale and Jimmy Strand and wife, Michelle, of Georgia; brother Orman Strand and wife, Shirley, of Colorado Springs, Colo., Earl Strand and wife, Vickie, of Orland, Calif., Verlo Strand and wife, Arlene, of Keller, Roger Strand and wife, Susan, of Fort Worth and Bob Strand and wife, Nancy, of Florida; sister Donna Wegleitner of Minnesota; and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. In lieu of flowers, donations can be given to the Salvation Army.

Hudson and Torres Family Funeral Home