

Wear, Mildred Nadine Holveck

Decatur ~ Mildred Nadine Holveck Wear, 91, a homemaker, went to be with our Lord Sunday, Dec. 15, 2019, in Decatur.

Funeral is 1 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 18, at Hawkins Funeral Home chapel in Decatur with burial to follow at Aurora Cemetery.

Family will receive friends one hour prior to the service at the funeral home.

The Rev. Phillip Weitner will officiate.

Pallbearers include Ben Hoover, Matt Hoover, John Hoover and Troy Misner.

Mildred was born to Mary Allie (Pierce) Holveck and Lucian Holveck April 30, 1928, near Cedar Hill in southwest Dallas County.

She was the oldest of six children. She attended elementary school at Florence Hill. The family moved to the Rio Grande Valley in 1937. Mildred graduated from Pharr-San Juan-Alamo High School in 1946. In school, she excelled in choir and throughout life she enjoyed singing.

In November 1948, she married John Misner and from this marriage were born five children.

Mildred married Carl Wear in November 1964, and they settled in Rhome in June of 1967. She enjoyed the many years she lived in Rhome. She and Carl were very active in civic life. Carl served as mayor of Rhome, and they were mainstays of the First Baptist Church. They enjoyed traveling and managed to see most of North America. Mildred excelled as a seamstress, and her floral arranging skills were on display at numerous locations. She was an avid doll collector, and she spent a great deal of time working with the local schools. She received an award in 1998 for her volunteer service at Seven Hills Elementary.

Mildred was predeceased by her siblings, Derrel Wayne Holveck, Atwell Lloyd Holveck, Morris Ladell Holveck and Norma Fross.

She is survived by her children, Cheryl Hoover and husband, Jerry, of Paradise, Donna Magness of Granbury, Steve Misner and wife, Cindi, of Rhome, John Misner of Anneville and Norma Jean Misner Smith of Rhome; her stepchildren Carolyn Hines and husband, Dan, of Rhome, Jennifer Blomberg and husband, Jerry, of Ogema, Wis., and Gary Wear and wife, Cynthia, of Whitesboro; her 18 grandchildren; her 38 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandsons; and her sister, Paula Reaves and husband, Kenneth, of Fort Worth.

The family would like to express our immense gratitude to the staff of the Hills Nursing Home of Decatur for the tremendous work they have done for the last decade.
