

Sharon Kay McKay Beumeler

1944-2020

By Messenger Staff / Published on August 12, 2020

Sharon Kay (McKay) Beumeler, age 75, of Carrollton, went to be with the Lord in Heaven on Saturday, Aug. 8, 2020. She was born in Decatur and lived in Carrollton for the last 22 years with her family.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Calvin Luther and Ilo Sue McKay.

Sharon is survived by her husband of 54 years, David Beumeler; daughters Kristina Smith and Katherine Kennedy; grandsons Bryce-David Smith and Colten Smith; two brothers, Kenneth McKay and Jerry McKay; one sister, Wanda Boone; and numerous in-laws, nieces and nephews.

She was a retired housewife, but her favorite "job" was caring for her two grandsons.

Funeral service will be at noon on Thursday, Aug. 13, at Northside Baptist Church, 2000 North Denton Drive in Carrollton. Viewing will be held at the church before the funeral from 11 a.m. to noon.

Anyone attending the funeral will be required to wear a face mask and practice social distancing, following Texas state guidelines.

Her final resting place on this earth will be at Sunset Cemetery in Sunset. A graveside service will be held at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 13.

The funeral will be live streamed on FB Live and YouTube. The link can be found on the church's website at nsbcc.com.