James (Jim) R. Bullard, age 57, died June 18, 2020. He was born Sept. 6, 1963, in Pasadena, Calif.

Services will be 9 a.m. Friday, July 3, at Biggers Funeral Chapel with committal at 11 a.m. at Dallas-Fort Worth National Cemetery.

Jim served honorably in the U.S. Air Force for 13 years. He was clever, full of wit, jokes and nonsense movie trivia. He loved family gatherings and was a notorious cheater at cards and board games. He enjoyed cooking, family dinners and unreasonable amounts of chocolate.

He and his wife Terri loved to be bums. Their idea of a good time was sitting on the couch and watching the news. When restless, they shared some fabulous trips including Tahiti, Hawaii and coast to coast extended golf trips. At their farm in Boyd, Jim loved his two Rottweiler dogs and raised cows, chickens and a worthless pot belly pig named Reba. He was loved.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Ellen (Egan) Bullard in 2002; his father John (Jack) Bullard in 2005; and his sister, Mary Ellen Alexander of Costa Mesa, Calif. in

Jim is survived by his wife, Terri Bullard; four children, Christopher Allinder, Brandee Goodnight, Zackery Goodnight and his wife, Krista and Autumn Hawks and her husband, Justen; 10 siblings, Barbara (Bullard) Fisher of Fort Worth, Patrick Bullard of Vancouver, Wash., Michael and his wife, Chris Bullard of Colleyville, Catherine (Cathy) Bullard and her partner, Sandy Russell of Banning, Calif., Margaret (Peggy) Schaab and her husband, Hans Schaab, of Summerville, S.C., William (Bill) Bullard and his wife, Vivian Bullard of Las Vegas, Nev., Elizabeth Bullard and her wife, Diane Craft, of Monument, Colo., Christine Makuta and her husband, Dennis Makuta, of Canton, Ga., Jane Conyers and her husband, John Conyers of Conyers, Ga.; and 16 nieces and nephews.
