

Laura Anastasia Huchton Trachta

1921-2020

By Messenger Staff / Published on December 04, 2020

Mass of Christian burial for Laura Anastasia (Huchton) Trachta, R.N., age 98, of Muenster, was Nov. 30 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Rosary and vigil was Nov. 29 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Pallbearers were Logan Trachta, Nicholas Trachta, Cody Trachta, Hank Trachta, Larry Wayne Gobble and Neil Huchton.

Laura was born Dec. 23, 1921, in Muenster to Otto J. and Catherine (Herr) Huchton. She attended Sacred Heart Grade School and transferred to Gainesville High School where she graduated in 1939. She entered nursing school in Sherman in 1943 and received her Registered Nursing degree in 1944. Laura worked in Sherman, Dallas, Austin and Gainesville.

She married the love of her life, Richard H. Trachta, Dec. 26, 1945, at Sacred Heart Church. She retired from National Supply as an industrial nurse after 18 years.

Laura's greatest joy was spending time with her family. She enjoyed sewing, gardening, cooking, fishing, boating and playing dominoes.

She passed away on Tuesday, Nov. 24, 2020.

Laura is survived by her sons and daughters-in-law, Wayne and Gay Trachta and Glenn and Janell Trachta; grandchildren DeAnn, Cody, Reagan, Kendall, Nicholas, Cameron, Mackenzie and Logan; six great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Richard Trachta; parents Otto and Catherine Huchton; twin granddaughters, Amanda and Madison; and nine brothers and sisters.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be sent to Sacred Heart Church.