

Adams, David Ray

1956-2021

By Messenger Staff / Published on January 27, 2021

David Ray Adams

David Ray Adams, 64, passed away, Saturday, Jan. 23, 2021. A private family celebration will be held. Please contact the family for information.

He was born May 11, 1956, in Fort Worth to William and Frances (Ashcraft) Adams. They both preceded him in death, along with his brother, Steve Adams. David was known as "Cowboy" to many. He grew up in Paradise and enjoyed the outdoors, including rattlesnake hunting, fishing and camping. David enjoyed working with his hands, including, wood working, wood carving, sand painting and playing the harmonica.

He is survived by his sisters, Patricia Huddleston of Springtown, and Sue Parker and husband, Bruce, of Paradise; five nephews; five nieces; and several great-nephews and nieces.