The Wise County Sheriff's Office has identified a suspect in the death of a Boyd man from over the weekend.

Sheriff Lane Akin said an arrest warrant has been issued for Daniel Wayne Pack, 31, of Azle. He is charged with murder in connection with the death of 61-year-old Michael Bolling of Boyd.

Local residents are asked to be on the lookout for Pack, described as a white male, 5-foot-8-inches tall, 150 pounds, with brown hair, blue eyes and tear drop tattoos beneath his eyes. He was last seen wearing a dark hoodie, camo pants and tennis shoes.

Akin said if anyone sees Pack, they should call 911 immediately but not approach him.

"I think citizens need to be cautious around this man because he's obviously a desperate person who is wanted on a first degree felony," he said. "We don't know of him having weapons, but I think he should be considered armed and dangerous."
