Jamie was born to Jake and Ann Hayley and was a 1977 Grand Prairie High School graduate. She is survived by her loving husband of 30 years, Bruce; her sons, Jason Taylor and wife, Starr and Cameron Taylor, and his significant other, Andrea; her daughter, Jamie Yvonne Taylor; her grandchildren, Aeneas, Jaycee, Micah, Dani, Kane, Kai, Riley and Braxton Bear.

Other survivors include her sister, Janet, and husband, Mitchell; her brother, James and his significant other, Mary; her mother; her father-in-law, Eddie, and his wife, Billie; her sisters-in-law, Cindy, and husband, Steven and Susan; her brother-in-law, Paul, and his wife, Crystal; her uncles, Dan, Dick and Donnie; her aunts, Lorene, Delores and Syble; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her father; mother-in-law; grandparents; nephew Joey; her cousin, Bubba; and aunts and uncles.

Jamie loved children and was disappointed she had to wait so long to become a grandmother. It really was not a long wait.

Jamie never doubted her ability to learn. She applied for jobs she wasn't qualified for because she knew she would have nailed it within a week.

Jamie worked at different companies during her career and her drive to excel at whatever she did made her a great employee and co-worker. One of her favorite jobs was Midas Rex Pneumatic Tool Company where she was an executive assistant to the vice president of the company. Her all time favorite was working as a dispatcher and office manager for American Luxury Limousine Company. She was instrumental in coordinating the transportation services for the Desert Storm Parade.

Jamie, a loving wife and daughter and caring mother and grandmother, will be dearly missed.

Jamie's ashes will be laid to rest in the Wilson Prairie Cemetery in Paradise in a family bench.
