

Schroeder, Linda Louise (Sisk)

1947-2021

By Messenger Staff / Published on October 29, 2021

Linda Louise Sisk Schroeder, 73, passed away in her home in Bend, Ore., Saturday, Oct. 23, 2021.

Linda was born Nov. 29, 1947, in Decatur to Ollie Kingsley and Mattye Mary Sisk. She attended Alvord High School, received her bachelor's degree from North Texas State University and her master's from the University of Houston. She met her husband, Roland Schroeder, in Houston, and they were married June 30, 1984.

A retired English teacher for high school and college, Linda taught for more than 40 years and was a member of Mensa. Linda was a natural athlete and grew up playing basketball, tennis and ran track in high school. She loved music and greatly enjoyed playing piano. Linda loved nature and took pleasure in birdwatching, visiting National Parks and was a lifetime animal and dog lover. In her free time, she delighted in playing Scrabble with friends, reading and traveling with her family.

Linda was preceded in death by her parents and her sisters, Sue Lymberopoulos and Sandra Smith.

She is lovingly remembered and missed by her husband of 37 years, Roland Schroeder; son Will (Ryan) Schroeder and fiancée, Felicity Brigham, of Seattle, Wash.; daughter Vanessa Schroeder and husband, Brandon Haslick, of Burns, Ore.; sister Kaye Hardy and husband, John, of Houston; and brother William Sisk and wife, Alana, of Tomball.

In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations to either the Mattye and Ollie Sisk Memorial Scholarship or the ASPCA. The family is planning a celebration of life in the spring of 2022 in Houston. Information about the donations and celebration of life are online at lindaschroedermemorial.com