Harry Wayne White Jr.

Graveside memorial service for Harry Wayne White Jr. of Lake Bridgeport is 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 11, at Eastside Cemetery, officiated by Father Reehan Antony.

Visitation will be at the cemetery, one hour before the service.

Wayne passed away peacefully Thursday, Aug. 19, at home, one day after his 69th birthday.

Wayne was born Aug. 18, 1952, in Fort Worth, Texas, to Harry Wayne White Sr. and wife Dez Irene (Garrison) White. He graduated from Richland High School. He was self-employed as a master electrician and had recently retired.

Wayne was a lifelong member of St. John's Catholic Church in Bridgeport and remained faithful all of his life. He was also an avid fisherman and loved his morning crappie fishing and tending to his garden in the evenings.

He was a man of his word, with a heart of gold and loved nothing more than telling you his most recent jokes, good or bad. Wayne loved being around his family and taking pictures of everything. His work ethic, friendly disposition, dedication to his family and his faith were impeccable, and that is his legacy.

Wayne is survived by his wife of 48 years, Kathleen (Casey) White; daughter Darcie White; son Zeb White; granddaughter Shelby White; great-grandsons Dawson, Tate and Tallen White; and sisters Beckey Stallcup and husband, James, and Cynthia Neece.

He was preceded in death by his parents.
