

Wood, Doris (Smith)

1930-2021

By Messenger Staff / Published on May 05, 2021

Doris Wood

Doris Wood left this earth on Monday, May 3, 2021. She was born on Jan. 23, 1930, in Deport, the fourth child of seven born to Troy and Minnie Smith. Doris and her family moved to Riverside, Calif., in 1941 where she attended and graduated from Riverside High School in 1946. In that same year, she met L.H. Wood who she married in April of 1946. L.H. and Doris moved to Lubbock in 1948 where they began their venture into the drywall construction business. Their construction business took them across several states where they were able to provide employment to hundreds and allowing them to impact the lives of thousands. Doris served as a mother figure to any individuals who needed her support and guidance.

She was preceded in death by her husband, L.H. Wood, and her sons, Donald and Bobby Dean Wood.

She is survived by her sons, Lewie Wood and wife, Janie, of San Angelo, and Kobie Wood and wife, Paula, of Dublin; daughter Melba Weatherly and husband, Tommy, of Paradise; and daughter-in-law Christine Wood of Houston.

She is also survived by grandchildren Shayde Wood and wife, Rebecca, of Weatherford, Kendell Blake and husband, Wade, of Yancey, Winston Wood and wife, Tria, of Houston, T.J. Weatherly and wife, Julie, of College Station, Brady Weatherly of Bryan, Lane Wood of Stephenville and Marley Wood of Weatherford; and great-grandchildren Tate Wood of Farnesville, Eliot Wood of Houston, Kaleb Blake of Yancey and Levi Weatherly of College Station.