

Barrow, William Alford

1938-2022

By ops@our-hometown.com / Published on November 25, 2022

William Alford Barrow, 84, of Mount Calm entered into eternal rest with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ Nov. 16, 2022, at Hillcrest Baylor Scott & White in Waco.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Nov. 19, at Wade Funeral Chapel in Hubbard. Rev. Jerry Johnson and Rev. Lewis McCartney officiated. A graveside service was held following the funeral at Fairview Cemetery in Hubbard.

Pallbearers were Shaun Barrow, Brandon Karr, Zachary McCartney, Micah McCartney, Jordan Karr and Shaun Cole Barrow.

William was born March 6, 1938, in Tioga to Clayborn Compton Barrow and Florence "BEE" Kinnard Barrow. He was united in marriage to Josie Foster on Sept. 8, 1956.

He was raised and resided in the Fort Worth area until his family relocated to Hubbard in 1971. He lived in Mount Calm for the past 10 years.

William was a machinist working for B&M Machinery in Bedford. He helped make helicopter parts during the Vietnam War. He worked for General Tire in Waco until the company sold and relocated to Pakistan. He retired as a machinist at Williamhouse Stationary in Corsicana.

He was a member of Community Chapel Church in Hubbard, where he loved to help sing and play harmonica.

William is survived by his loving and faithful wife of 66 years, Josie Foster Barrow; son, Randy Barrow of Boyd; daughter, Rhonda Barrow McCartney and husband, Lewis, of Austin; grandchildren, Natausha Barrow Karr and husband, Brandon, of Poolville; Shaun Barrow and wife, Beth, of Poolville; Zachary McCartney of Itasca, and Micah McCartney and wife, Tiffany, of Azle; great-grandchildren Jordan Karr and wife, Karleigh, Aricka Barrow, Emilie Karr, Ashlyn Karr and Shaun Cole Barrow; and brother, Larry Barrow of Fort Worth.

William would also want to recognize and remember his favorite nurse, Heather, who lovingly and adoringly tended to his every need, and his dear friend, Jerry Burns, who called and spoke to him every evening during his long illness.

William often looked forward to their conversations and prayers, and he enjoyed the visits, phone calls and gifts bestowed upon him by his many nephews and nieces.

William was preceded in death by his parents; brothers, Cloyce Wayne Barrow and Donnie Barrow; daughter-in-law, Freda Pickerell Barrow; and infant grandson, Joshua McCartney.

Wise County Messenger, November 25, 2022