

Smith, Cynthia Elaine (Sherman)

1960-2022

By ops@our-hometown.com / Published on October 12, 2022

Friday, Oct. 7, 2022, surrounded by loved ones at her home in Boyd, Cindy, devoted wife, mother, beloved MawMaw, sister, aunt and friend, was welcomed into the gates of heaven at 12:04 p.m.

Cynthia Elaine Sherman was born Nov. 7, 1960, in Decatur, to Earl and Elaine Sherman. In 1963 when Cindy was 3 years old, Milton Andress assumed the role of father and lovingly raised her. Cindy married the love of her life, Bud Smith, in 1989. Her favorite role was MawMaw and was a force and a light for her grandchildren.

Cindy was preceded in death by her biological father, Earl Sherman; mother, Elaine Andress; brother, Eugene Andress; sister, Kim Andress; and two precious babies, Tamara and Shaun Hunt.

The growing legacy she leaves behind includes her husband, Bud Smith; father, Milton Andress; sister, Angela Brown and husband, Derek; brothers, David Sherman and Dusty Sherman; son, Brian Hunt; daughters, Jennifer Bulpitt and husband, Jesse, Sherri Naugle and husband, Matt, and Brittany Erwin and husband, Kyle; grandchildren, Wyatt, Raychel, Alayna, Miley, Sarah, Alaina, Allie, Landyn and Everett.

She also loved her nephews, Sean, Brendan and Juston; nieces Courtney, Brooklyn, Jessica and Rene; and her many great-nieces and nephews.

At the family's request, please send floral tributes through Celebrations Florist in Boyd.

Visitation service is 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 12, at Hawkins Funeral Home in Decatur. Funeral service is 10 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 13, at Aurora Baptist Church, 201 Derting Road, Aurora.

Hawkins Funeral Home Decatur 940-627-5959 Hawkinsfuneralhome.com

Wise County Messenger, October 15, 2022