

Valcik, Linda Jo (Davis)

1940-2022

By ops@our-hometown.com / Published on August 31, 2022

Linda Jo (Davis) Valcik, 82, of Plano, died Friday, Aug. 19, 2022.

Linda was born in 1940 to James Gordon and Florine (Eubanks) Davis in Mexia. She graduated Decatur High School in 1958. In high school, she was a cheerleader, basketball player and played the bass drum in the marching band. She was united in marriage to Dr. John C. Valcik on July 1, 1967. They met when he was umpiring a softball game and she was the coach of one of the teams.

Linda took photography classes at Collin College and was an avid reader. Linda and her husband would often play tennis and bridge. She worked as an Administrative Assistant to the Dean of Brain and Behavior Science at the University of Texas at Dallas before retiring in 2010.

She is survived by her sons, Dr. Nicolas A. Valcik and wife, Kristi, and Erik G. Valcik and wife, Tambrea; daughter, Heather L. Valcik; grandchildren, Dax Gavin Valcik, Rylea Mugrage, Aidan Cooper Charlet and Sienna Rayne Charlet; sister, Florence O'Bryan, of Decatur; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; and sister, Sarah Jorgenson.

Her funeral was Monday, Aug. 29, 2022, at Chase Oaks Church Legacy Campus, 281 Legacy Drive in Plano. Pastor Peter Park officiated. Interment followed at Plano Mutual Cemetery in Plano. In lieu of flowers, please donate books to your local library or make a donation in Linda Jo's name to www.stjude.org/