Lloyd Ward entered into the presence of our Lord and Savior Wednesday, Oct. 19, 2022.

Lloyd was born March 13, 1936, to Orbon and Della Ward, in Hillsboro. He was the youngest of 11 children. He married the love of his life, Rona Jo (Worley) Ward April 7, 1956, in Cooke County. He was a beloved dad, granddad, great-granddad and friend to many.

Ward, as most knew him, was a welder by trade. He was one of the founders of Boyd Built Feeders, establishing the business in 1962. After leaving Boyd Built Feeders, Ward was self-employed and continued to build all types of metal buildings, fencing and cattle corrals. He later partnered with his son, Billy Pate, and Harry Lamance to form P&L Metal Buildings.

Those left behind to cherish his memory are his sons; Billy Pate and wife, Linda, of Boyd, James Ward and wife, Leslie, of Bridgeport, Justin Ward and wife, Natasha, of Novice; his daughter, Janiece Pate Roper and husband, Rocky, of Boyd; grandchildren, Shana Jackson and husband, Todd, of Fort Worth, Angie Turpin and husband, Frank, of Fort Worth, Rikki Pate, Jessica Pate and Caty Pate, of Boyd, Jeremy Goodger and wife, Cathy, of Boyd, Blaine Willbanks, of Keller, Whitney Willbanks and husband, Ryan Erwin, of Boyd, Marianne Wenecke and husband, Arick, of Tolar, Payton Ward of Bridgeport, Lane Ward and wife, Megan, of San Antonio, Megan Ward of Philadelphia, Pa., Luke Ward, of Waco and Katie Ward, of College Station; 11 great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.
