

Andrews, Carol (Bond)

1939-2023

By Messenger Staff / Published on February 03, 2023

Funeral service for Carol Andrews, 83, of Paradise will be 2 p.m. Friday, Feb. 3, 2023, at Hudson & Torres Family Funeral Home in Bridgeport. Visitation will be one hour prior to the service. Pastors Chad Welty and David Kelly will officiate.

Pallbearers include Rick Noel, Simon Najera, Anthony Grant, Paul Boaz, Grant Newton, John Ward, Nathan Piatt and Mark Horton.

Born Nov. 6, 1939, in Springfield, Mass., Carol was raised by her parents, Howard and Edith Bond, in Atlanta, Ga. She married June 19, 1964, to the love of her life, Pliny Earl Andrews, and was happily married for 54 years.

Carol attended Decatur Baptist College for her associate degree and Howard Payne University for her bachelor's degree. She also attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, eventually earning her master's degree. She loved working with children. Carol devoted her life to teaching, and eventually retired from Paradise ISD. In her free time, she also taught Sunday school, most recently at Redeemer Church in Bridgeport, and spent time with family and worked with children's ministries for many years.

Those left to cherish her memory are her two sons, Bradley Howard Andrews and wife, Suzanne, of Paradise, and Steven James Andrews and wife, Amanda, of Fort Worth; sisters, Bonnie Rushlow and Judy Hansard; grandchildren, Matthew and wife, Kalsie, Corgan, Tanner and wife, Phoebe, Raeann and fiancé, Alex, Madisyn, Dillon, Mikayla, Hadley and Reed; great-grandchildren, Madden, Bowen and Waylon; and a host of friends, relatives, and her church family.

Carol is preceded in death by her father, Howard Bond and wife, Edith, of Atlanta, Ga.; mother, Christine Toms of Brattleboro, Va.; husband, Pliny Andrews; and brother, Howard Bond Jr. of Liberty.

Hudson & Torres Family Funeral Home 401 Halsell Street Bridgeport, TX 76426 hudsontorres.com

940-683-1704