

ELIZABETH "BETH" ACOLA CLEVENGER

Elizabeth "Beth" Acola Clevenger died November 10, 2006 in Dallas following a seven year struggle with ovarian cancer.

Beth was the daughter of Sam Acola and Marian Woody Acola and was born Sunday February 25, 1940 in Fort Worth. She grew up in Decatur, where she received her primary education in the public schools. She graduated with a BS in Education from Texas Christian University in 1962 where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. In 1971 she married Thomas J. "Buddy" Hoyt who preceded her in death in 1990. She subsequently married Loyd Harold Clevenger in 1995. She was employed by Texas Instruments in Dallas for over twenty years in the geophysical services area. In 1990 she retired from the law firm of Carrington, Coleman, et al following ten years of service as a legal secretary.

She is survived by her husband, her brother Sam Woody Acola and wife Betty of Fort Worth; her sister Carolyn Acola Phelps and husband Richard of Conroe; her niece Maxine Acola of Houston; and her children Bonnie and Stephanie Turtur,; her nephew Gary Phelps of Phoenix, AR; Harold's son Marc Clevenger and his wife Ann and daughters, Katie and Jessie.

Graveside service was November 13 at the Deep Creek Cemetery . The family suggests in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, P.O. Box 4464, Houston, TX 77210 or Deep Creek Cemetery Association, Decatur, TX, or a charity of their choice,

*Coker Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Texas*