

JIMMY BROOKS WARE

Jimmy Brooks Ware, 59, of Boyd, died November 5, 2006 in Decatur.

Mr. Ware was born November 7, 1946 in Abilene to Matt and Dean Ware. He was a retired Agriculture teacher from Boyd Independent School District. He was a member of the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association of Texas, the Wise County Retired Teachers Association and the Texas Longhorn Association. He was preceded in death by his sister, Bessie Dianne Martin.

He is survived by his wife of 38 years, Linda Ware of Boyd; his son, Brooks Ware and wife Morley of Kingwood; grandchildren, Matthew and Madison Ware; his parents Matt and Dean Ware of Hico; niece, Hope McCracken of Killeen; and a host of friends.

Funeral service is Wednesday, November 8 at the First Baptist Church in Boyd with Rev. Jerry L. Howard officiating and assisted by Darrell Neely. Interment is at the Boyd Cemetery. Pallbearers are Jay Erickson, Kyle Erwin, Kelly Doster, Jackie Read, Jason Nelson and Scott Nelson.

*Christian-Hawkins Funeral Home
100 W. Ewing • Boyd, Texas*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, November 09, 2006

