

JOSEPH WARREN BISHOP

---

1941-2009

DECATUR: Joseph Warren Bishop, 67, of Decatur, co-owner of Capital Consultants in Austin, died on Friday, March 20, 2009 in Decatur, Texas.

Joseph, a Navy veteran, was born April 17, 1941 in Dallas, Texas to Warren Harding and Frances Luellen (Crisman) Bishop. He married Theresa "Terri" Beckler, September 30, 1989 in Dallas. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Decatur.

Survivors include his wife of 19 years, Terri Bishop; sons, Tony Bishop and wife, Mary of Rowlett, Texas, Brandon Bishop and wife, Jill of Franklin, Tennessee and Ryan Bishop and wife, Kelli of Louisville, Kentucky; daughter, Pamela Kay Pierson and husband, David of Oroville, California; grandchildren, Sam, Alex, Markus, Michael, Michelle, T.J., Taylor, Olivia, Brian, Billy, Brandi, Linda, Joshua, Aby, Isabel, Aurora, Cheyenne, Scott and Tommy; great-grandchildren, Halle and A.J.; brother, David Bishop and wife, Sherry of Center, Texas; sister Pamela Jean Rogers and husband, Mike of Kaufman, Texas; numerous nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

Joseph is preceded in death by his parents and 3 sons, Dennis, Danny and Joshua Bishop.

Donations can be made to the U.S. Polo Training Foundation and Bobby Barry Scholarship Fund.

Funeral service were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, March 24, 2009 at the First Baptist Church in Decatur, Texas, with the Reverend Ken May officiating. Interment followed at Mansfield Cemetery in Mansfield, Texas.

Pallbearers were Alex Hewitt, Markus Pierson, Sam Hewitt, T.J. Bishop, Taylor Bishop and Tom Rogers. Honorary pallbearers were Danny Scheraga, Sidro Olivas, Sain Joseph, David Ramsey, C.E. Crenshaw, David Beckler, Michael Decker, Jim McGlasmery and Jose Menendez.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, March 26, 2009