

CHARLES LUTHER BROCK

1933-2009

DECATUR: Charles Luther Brock, 76, died on Sunday, March 8, 2009 in Decatur.

Charles was born January 24, 1933 in Decatur, Texas to Charles L. and Gertie Lee (Ford) Brock. He married Betty McCasland on October 24, 1952 in Decatur, Texas. Charles retired as parts manager for Wise Equipment of Decatur and served in the United States Army during the Korean War. He was a member of the Decatur Church of Christ.

Survivors include his wife of 56 years, Betty Brock of Decatur, three daughters, Deborah McCullough and husband, Bobby of Decatur, Teresa Broach and husband, Joe of Decatur, Claressa Zoorob and husband, Adib of Murphy, Texas; son, Charles Brock and wife, Lydia of Decatur; 7 grandchildren, Charles, Chris, Clint, Clifton, Josh, Hannah, and George; 13 great grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

Charles is preceded in death by parents and two brothers.

Funeral service was 2 p.m. Tuesday, March 10th at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home Chapel with Rick Ross officiating. Interment followed the service in Oaklawn Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Steve Brock, Chris Brock, Clint Skinner, Clifton Skinner, Josh Grohman, and Berl Mc-Casland.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, March 12, 2009